My song I've Been there is # 11 on the country gospel chart # 56 on the southern gospel music chart CMP magazine. My latest radio release He Said Live is # 28 on the country gospel charts. By the time you read this, these songs may have moved up or down. You can see where the song is ranked at cmp magazine.com.

I am originally from the Old Dock, North Carolina community and was raised at the Boys Home, Lake Waccamaw, N.C. Like a lot of people, I grew up in a Christian home.

I attended church as a youth. I heard about Jesus, but didn't take time to know Him. When I was seventeen, I joined the US Army. I was to play football, run track and the possibility of the Olympics.

On Dec. 25th, 1970 while home on leave for the Christmas holidays, I was involved in a tragic automobile accident, still only seventeen. I found myself in a hospital bed, paralyzed from the waist down, Hearing people tell me that God had done this terrible thing to me. I was ignorant of the Word. I was furious. I blamed and cursed God for over ten years.

Then one night lying in my hospital room, Jesus spoke to my heart and said, "Randy, I didn't paralyze you. I did allow it to happen, but you're the one who did it."

That was the beginning of my road to salvation. I straddled the fence for years. I even attended Bible College. However in 2001 The Holy Spirit convicted me. He brought me back from a backslidden condition. I am now on the true path.

It is an honor and privilege to work with Jesus. It is a personal relationship and He will be your refuge Psalm 91. I am an example of the miraculous things that He can do. He didn't give up on me and I am not going to give up on Him. On the other side of this brochure is an article by the Wilmington Star News. It's more of my testimony.

I have sung and been interviewed on The World Hope Broadcast Network. The Grand Ole Gospel House. Southern Gospel Music's renowned Chicken House.

I have had the honor of performing with such artist as The Florida Boys, Chuck Wagon Gang, The Hemphill's, The Megruders, Alabama Spirituals, Easter Brothers, Easter Family, The Red white Family, Mended Vessel, The Nelons, Lewis Family, Browns, Wilburns, Oxendines, ViewMasters, Locklears, Pierce Family, Carla & Redemption, Singing Revelations, Harris Creek, Straight Gate, Cummings Brothers & Bernetta, Quinton Mills, Kevin Spencer, Nadine & Stevie, New Hope Singers, Tim Bass, Deb Wilson, these are only a few.

I have released three cds and five songs nation wide. My new radio song release is on vision quest records, "He Said Live."

From All East Track in high school. A promise of football & track with the US Army. Olympic dreams shattered in one moment. Drug & alcohol addiction. Death of a spouse, blasphemer, whoremonger, liar, thief, every work of the flesh almost. Then Jesus said LIVE.

With your help God can use me in your area to reach the lost or just be a blessing at your church for a Sunday morning or night service,
