

Need You

C                      Fmaj7

Lord, it's me again
Feeling small again, needing you again

The seas roar and the nations rage
Signs reveal the end of the age
Toiling of the division bell
Calls us all to heaven or hell

Minstrels sing with second sight
While dreamers dance into the light
The dead walk by the truth that's told
'Cause gilded lies shine like gold (Chorus)

Shadows grow tall in the setting sun
As the Spirit calls, and the reapers come
The New World Order marches on Sailors to a siren song

A harlot lures the Kings of men
And fills her golden cup again
The wine is sweet, but her love is cold
A dark embrace as was fortold (Chorus)
